"The Store Where Quality Counts"

Thanksgiving -1919-

Thanksgiving Day is another of Life's favors. Whether we have looked forward to this day with pleasure in the anticipation of being back home again, or share our hospitality with congenial friends, the measure of our happiness is the same. The one thing of which we're sure is that we are glad to express our gratefulness for a world at peace, for the priceless gift of friends and for bounties received during the year just past.

This Store is human, too, in its appreciation of its many friends and their patronage during the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Howland and niece, Miss Lucy Wells, left this noon for Amherst, Mass., where they will spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Howland's nephew, Frank Wells, who is attending Amherst college.

Rt. Rev. George Y. Bliss, D. D., bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Vermont, will visit Barre next Sunday and preach in the Church of the Good Shepherd at 10:30 a. m., confirming a class. He will visit Westerville for the p. m. service to preach and confirm the class.

Louis Hoar of 21 East street, who went to New York state Saturday, has returned after visiting at Albany and Port Henry. At the iron works of the Wilberhe Sherman Co., Inc. he secured a position in the cost accounting department, with orders to report next Monday morning.

After the Thanksgiving holiday, it is expected the directors will go to the community house on Spaulding street and make out plans for starting the work. Furnishings for the house are acceptable and what you have for the house will be collected. Bedroom suites, chairs, rockers, pictures, dishes, rugs or carpets, tables, cooking utensils and any other furnishings necessary or handy in your own home would be acceptable.

In having a hard pine plank Monday afternoon Jerry Burke, employed in the repair work on the Trow & Holden railroad crossing, inflicted a severe cut in the calf of his left leg. The advice which he was using glanced off a knot in the plank and buried one corner of the blade in the leg as far as the bone. An artery was severed and a cut an inch or more long was inflicted by the accident. After checking the profuse bleeding by tying a handkerchief very tightly above the cut he was enabled to reach a doctor's office for treatment. He was out yesterday but will be unable to work for several days.

The Meadow Brook Golf club has arranged for a banquet in the Clan Gordon hall to-night for the benefit of all their members and friends. There the presentation of the silver cups which are on display in the Marjorie store window will be made to the winners of the various prizes awarded during the past season. A freeland was the cup offered for the highest runner up, J. Stewart for the second eight, J. T. Fraser for the seventh runner up, G. Anderson for the third eight, A. McHaffie for the third runner up, J. Forrest for the fourth eight, A. Bagrie for the fourth runner up, W. Smith for the consolation prize and A. McHaffie for the weekly tournament prize for the season.

Rodney Peake, well known to many of the E. Ross barber shop patrons, since he was employed there at the outbreak of the war, arrived here yesterday from Boston for a visit. He enlisted in 1917 and after drilling at Fort Dix, Allen, Mass., was sent to Camp Wadsworth he sailed across to France in September, 1918, just a little late for trench fighting. At Issoudun, France, he remained for five months guarding German prisoners and was doing similar duty all over France for 13 months. On Oct. 28 he arrived at Camp Dix, N. J. He was soon discharged from the 243rd P. W. E. (prisoner of war escort) corps and has since been visiting his sisters and mother in Boston and New York. He contemplates leaving here the latter part of this week for Los Angeles, Cal., to take up electrical repair work.

A congregation of 150 or more friends of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Abbiatti, who were recently married in Buffalo, N. Y., where for a time they resided, assembled in the K. of C. hall last evening to tender them a farewell reception. The evening was made very pleasant by dancing. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, wafers and punch were served. The presentation of a costly gold jewelry case to Mrs. Abbiatti and a gold cigarette case to Mr. Abbiatti by John B. Cassidini, in behalf of the group, came as a complete surprise to the couple, who assured their friends that the tokens of remembrance and esteem would be precious articles to them. At 11:30 Murray's orchestra ceased playing for a time, as nearly all the friends accompanied the two young people to the depot. They left on the midnight train for New York City, where on Nov. 29, they board the Mauretania for Cherbourg, France. Their destination, however, is Lugano, Switzerland. Mr. Abbiatti's former home. Just how long they will remain in Europe is undecided but eventually they plan to return to the United States. Mrs. Abbiatti before her marriage was Miss Edna Cassidini of 27 Maple avenue.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Sale of hats, a good variety, from $1.50 up. Mrs. Mariani.
See the bargains in millinery. Mrs. Birnie, 4 Laurel street.—adv.

Alex Smith of South Ryegate is visiting friends and relatives in Barre for a few days.

Miss Blanche Meyette, teacher in West Newbury, is visiting over the holiday with Miss Ethel Gamble of Division street.

John Muir has so far recovered from an operation which he recently submitted to at the Barre City hospital that he has returned to his home on Bassett street.

Max Holden, Arthur Camire and Walter Tobin, students of Boston university, arrived home to-day to spend the holidays.

The university seasons are adjourned until next Monday morning. A chimney fire in the house occupied by Second Assistant Chief Edward Barrett at 11 South Main street required the contents of three extinguishers to prevent a serious fire yesterday afternoon at 5:45.

The second of a series of card parties for the benefit of the ladies' aid society of St. Monica's church will be held at the home of Mrs. A. H. Burke, 117 Summer street, Friday evening, Nov. 28, at 7 o'clock. Members and their friends are invited to attend.

The large plant in display in the George Manatt fruit store this morning in a lemon tree that for 15 years has been the property of the Emalie greenhouse on the Montpelier road. It is bearing the largest amount of fruit this season during the life of the plant.

Miss Myrie Pirie, milliner in the Adams company store, who for the past few weeks has been in the Barre City hospital, having recently undergone an operation for appendicitis, has returned to her home in Williamstown, where she will remain several weeks to recuperate.

Arthur Bullock, driver of the local Standard Oil company truck, has returned from Albany, N. Y., where he has been for the past few days with the large motor truck of that company.

The truck was left there for the winter, as it was necessary for the machinery to be overhauled. The gear and body will be repainted and relettered. During the winter months horses will be used on the small truck to deliver oil here and in the suburban districts covered by the local representatives of the company.

Before Judge E. M. Harvey a juvenile matter was to-day disposed of. It was the case of a child who had been removing things from the 10-cent store. It appeared that the boy had been getting into too fast company, which had resulted in the trouble. He was again placed on probation.

One of the most interesting things that has occurred in the board of charities and probation office took place during last evening and was found this morning. Something like a year ago a man from Windsor county contributed $25 to be used in the comfort of some child, leaving the matter with the secretary. Some six months ago this forwarded another check but this was $50, for two children's comfort, and this morning the secretary found that he had tucked under his door a check for $75, for the same purpose, while the note accompanying it was written on a portion of the envelope and there was no set formality in the writing and directions how to spend the money other than for child comfort.

Edna St. John, who is teaching in Worcester, is passing a few days here with her sister, Mrs. Will Hartson. A new hardwood floor is being laid in the schoolhouse here. It will be highly appreciated by both teacher and scholars, as it had been needed for a long time.

N. M. Stocker and Clyde Clifford were in Barre Friday.

Mrs. S. E. Houghton received a shower of 75 postcards and letters on her birthday, Nov. 20, also fruit and a beautiful birthday cake, lighted with a candle for each year, besides other gifts, all of which were greatly appreciated by her.

W. R. Tibbels is in Cabot at the home of F. G. Lamberton for a few days' visit.

L. A. Blake of West Danville visited his sister, Mrs. S. E. Houghton, last Thursday.

Elva Shaw of Brandon visited her parents a few days last week.

The cases of whooping cough are all on the wane.

L. J. Eastman has moved from his farm back down here for the winter. Clyde Clifford has returned from his trip to New Hampshire and other places.

Card of Thanks.
Being unable personally to thank all of my friends, relatives, neighbors and Pythian Sisters, I wish to take this way to express my gratitude and appreciation for the past card shower and presents on my birthday recently, and for the many kindnesses shown me by fruit, flowers and words of cheer, given me in the past few years since I have been laid up. I especially wish to thank the Pythian Sisters of Myrtle temple for what they did for me at the last meeting I attended. Mrs. S. E. Houghton.
